

Submit your case to the John Molson Business Ownership Case Writing Competition

The John Molson School of Business's Bob and Raye Briscoe Centre in Business Ownership Studies is pleased to invite case writers to submit new, unpublished teaching cases under the theme of business ownership.

Business ownership cases may come from any business discipline, and focuses on the perspective of the owner of the business as the active manager of the enterprise. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to, acquiring or divesting an existing business, inter-generational ownership and/or transition, valuation, liquidity, governance, strategy making, etc. The key thread is that the case focus explores and addresses issues from the business owner's perspective.

The deadline for submission is July 31, 2019.
