

Academy of Management MED November 2016 Newsletter

In this newsletter:

Message from MED Chair, Peter McNamara.....1
Call for Reviewers and Submissions for MED 2017 Program, Paul Hibbert.....2
Reminder – identify your Submission for a MED Award, Miguel Olivas-Lujan.....2
Call for Submissions PDW 2017 Program, Kim Gower.....3
MED 2017 Board.....3

Message from MED Chair

MED needs your input so we can both have a successful AOM 2017 conference in Atlanta, Georgia and also to continue the development of our division in the service of the membership. We need you to take action now, by:

- Volunteering as a conference reviewer;
- Start developing your submission for the AOM conference
 - Interesting research papers that make a contribution to the Management Education and Development literature;
 - Professional Development Workshop proposals that advance our skills and capabilities as MED researchers, Business School educators and leaders
 - Symposia proposals that bring teams of researchers together to deliver a coherent set of insights into a central research challenge facing the MED field

Please do spread the word that MED is looking for and values contributions that advance professional scholarship and research in management education and development. AOM 2017 in Atlanta, Georgia offers opportunities to interchange ideas, research, and fellowship. Join with other management educators, developers, and researchers at all career stages who value the academic role in the classroom and want to improve as teachers and share research affecting teaching and learning practice.

See below link for further information and our Program Chair and PDW Chair invitations later in this newsletter.

Please do feel free to contact me or any of the MED Officers with ideas that you think can develop the mission of our division!

Peter

Peter McNamara,
Maynooth University Ireland

Call for Reviewers and MED 2017 Program

As you know, an academic conference is only as good as the work of its participants. Please help us identify the best submissions for AOM Atlanta 2017 by signing up NOW to review for MED. The reviewers' database is refreshed every year so you need to sign up again even if you have reviewed for MED in the past. Please visit now, <http://aom.org/annualmeeting/review/>, and make sure MED is one of your divisions where you are a reviewer. As you select key areas of interest you will also get refreshed ideas for your submissions. The submissions website is also open now.

QUICK LINKS:

About the Theme: At The Interface

Become a Reviewer

Submission Information

MED 2017 Call for Scholarly Program Submissions
(and note MED Awards to indicate in your papers)

If you have any questions about the program or reviewing, please contact the program chair Paul Hibbert - medpc@st-andrews.ac.uk.

Paul

Paul Hibbert, University of St. Andrews,
2017 Program Chair

Call for Submissions, 2017 MED PDW Program

MED PDW programs provide enrichment opportunities in our diverse interests and expertise – research, pedagogy and practice in teaching, and impacting society. Sessions helping with research and writing are particularly popular and we look forward to your submissions. General information on PDWs for AOM 2017 can be found here.

We expect our signature Writer's Workshop to provide many emerging management education researchers with developmental advice as we increase contributors to meet the exceedingly popular session on addressing reviewer comments in 2017!

More generally there are opportunities to develop research-informed teaching and development.

(on behalf of) Kim Gower,
University of Mary Washington
MED PDW Program Chair

Award Opportunities

Because we highly value our members' work, we have six awards to recognize our most excellent submissions. If you qualify, please self-nominate for the awards below in your submissions for our meeting in 2017. More information is available \(click or Ctrl-Click\)

MED Best Paper in Management Education,

Sponsor: Organizational Behavior Teaching Society and the Journal of Management Education

MED Best Paper in Graduate Management Education,

Sponsor: Graduate Management Admission Council (GMAC)

MED Global Forum Best Paper, for best paper that creates the opportunity to address global issue(s) of significance to management education and/or development

MED Junior Faculty Best Paper Award,

Sponsor: SAGE/Journal of Leadership and Organizational Studies for the most significant contribution to management education by a Junior Faculty authorship team (none earned doctorates before 2008)

Barry Armandi Award for Best Student Paper in Management Education and Development

Best Symposium in Management Education and Development Award

Sponsor: McGraw Hill/Irwin

Best Professional Development Workshop,

Sponsor: ASFOR, the Italian Association for Managerial Formation

Miguel

Miguel R. Olivas-Lujan,
Clarion University of Pennsylvania
MED Chair-Elect

MED 2017 Officers – look for more collaboration opportunities for the 2017 AOM meeting in Atlanta in the next newsletter. MED officers are always available to you:

Chair:	Peter McNamara, Maynooth University, Ireland
Past-Chair:	Barbara A. Ritter, Coastal Carolina University
Chair-Elect:	Miguel R. Olivas-Lujan, Clarion University of Pennsylvania
Program Chair:	Paul Hibbert, University of St. Andrews
Program Chair-Elect:	Kim Gower, University of Mary Washington
ListServ Manager	Charles Wankel, St. John's University
Membership Chair:	Sabine Hoidn, University of St. Gallen
Membership Coordinator-Elect:	Kathleen J. Barnes, William Patterson University
Newsletter Coordinator:	Darlene Alexander-Houle, University of Phoenix
Practitioner Liaison:	Melanie P. Cohen, Housing & Urban Dev/OCIO
Practitioner Liaison-Elect	Nicole M. Coomber, University of Maryland
Program Evaluation Coordinator:	Alan B. Eisner, Pace University
Representatives at Large:	Jennifer Lynn Schultz, Metropolitan State University and April L. Wright, University of Queensland
Research Chair:	Josh Daspit, Mississippi State University
Research Coordinator-Elect:	Gerard Beenen, California State University
Secretary:	Olga Igorevna Ryazanova, National University of Ireland
Treasurer:	Erika Engel Small, Coastal Carolina University