

Announcing
The 2022 MSR Scholarly Research Colloquium
A Global Online Event
July 27th and 28th
(28/29 in Oceania and parts of Asia-Pacific)

MSR Research, Theory, and Practice:
Leading Change Through
Transformative Mentoring, Teaching, and Social Impact

In its 22nd year, the MSR Special Interest Group of the Academy of Management is proud to offer a unique opportunity to engage with our transdisciplinary network of management researchers, teachers and practitioners. This Research Colloquium will focus on the role of spirituality in generative research as impacted by transformative mentoring, teaching, and the ever present call for positive social impact. Anchored by 3 plenaries this event features numerous supporting sessions to deepen inquiry, facilitate collaboration, and accelerate practical application of the concepts discussed.

Previous MSR Colloquia have engaged a global audience of hundreds of scholars and practitioners from more than 17 countries.
The program is FREE and will include more than 18 sessions.
